Recognizing & Resisting the Work of the Enemy

Pastor Nick Wilson

Auditorium

Mon - Fri

9:00

Scripture teaches that we do not battle against flesh and blood, but against spiritual entities and powers in this world. Specifically, it names our enemy, Satan, and gives us an understanding of his work. We will consider the ways that Christians recognize and respond to the evil carried out by our enemy.

MONDAY: THE DEVIL AND HIS WORK

- What does the Bible teach about Satan and his work, and how can we stand against it? We will examine the character and nature of Satan and specific examples of his work. We will also consider the Christian response to the works of evil that we encounter in the world.

TUESDAY: THE DEVIL AND TEMPTATION

No one is immune to temptation. Jesus proved this himself. We will consider the temptation of Jesus and what it reveals about the temptation we face today and how we should respond.

WEDNESDAY: THE DEVIL AND FEAR

In a society that is marked by perpetual fear how should the Christian live? Scripture teaches that Satan will use fear for his purposes. We will discuss the ways that fear is used against us and what the Bible teaches about overcoming fear.

THURSDAY: THE DEVIL AND ACCUSATION

-Satan is described in Scripture as an "accuser." We will examine what it means to overcome these accusations as our enemy works to confine us with our weaknesses and mistakes.

FRIDAY: THE DEVIL AND HIS DEFEAT

We face a powerful enemy, but he has already been defeated. It is important that we understand the work of Satan, but we do not need to live in bondage to that work. Jesus has already won the spiritual battle that rages around us today.

MEN OR WOMEN: WHO LEADS?

This study covers the Genesis record of Man and Woman in their original sinless state and the roles GOD created them for as a community of oneness. It also covers the devastating results of sin on that relationship when human rebellion against GOD in the Garden of Eden set off a chain reaction of brokenness and consequences that have affected that oneness for generations of relationships since that time till now. This study also covers the Biblical roles of men and women within society and especially the Church, while also addressing passages that argue against women in church leadership.
